Indirect speech – tense shift

Vergangenheit			Gegen-wart /	Zukunft
Vor-Vergangenheit	Gerade eben abgeschlossene Vergangenheit	Einfache Vergangenheit	jetzt

Past Perfect (Simple)

Present Perfect (Simple)

Past (Simple)

Present (Simple)

Futur I – will ➔ would

> You will work. ➔ He said you would work.
> You won't work ➔ He said you wouldn't work.
> Will you work? ➔ He asked if you would work.

Futur I - going to ➔ was / were going to

> You are going to work. ➔ He said you were going to work.
> You are not going to work. ➔ He said was going to work.
> Are you going to work? ➔ He asked if you were going to work.

> You work. ➔ He said you worked
> You don't work. ➔ He said you didn't work.
> Do you work? ➔ He asked if you did work?

> You worked. ➔ He said you had worked.
> You didn't work. ➔ He said you hadn't worked.
> Did you work? => He asked if you had worked?

> You have worked. ➔ He said you had worked.
> You haven't worked. ➔ He said you hadn't worked.
> Have you worked? => He asked if you had worked?

> You had worked.
> You hadn't worked.
> Had you worked?